

Carol L. Leininger

Obituaries Apr 13, 2023 1:00 AM

Carol L. Leininger, 80, of Elyria, passed away Friday, April 7, 2023. Carol was born June 26, 1942 to parents, Dr. Paul M. and Miriam V. (nee Kachel) Leininger in Niagara Falls, New York.

Carol earned her bachelor's degree in biology and history from Otterbein College, then went to Southern Illinois University to earn her master's degree in biology. She was Professor Emeritus of Biology at Lorain County Community College for 35 years.

Carol was active in the Black River Audubon Society and the Friends of the Lorain County...

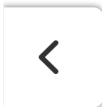

...axiliary, and the W.O.C.V. Elyria Chapter. Carol was a lifetime member of the Fields United Methodist Church in North Ridgeville. She was actively involved with the mission committee and a member of the Red Hats Society.

Surviving family is her nephew, Paul J. Mohler, his wife, Molly and their children, Kathryn, Caroline, and Andrew of Cary, North Carolina.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and siblings, Shirley Mohler (Richard) and Paul Leininger, Jr.

Visitation will be held Friday, April 14, 2023 from 10 to 11 a.m. with funeral service to follow at 11 a.m. at the Busch Funeral Home, 114 Second St., Elyria, 440-322-3717. Pastor Tom Joyce of Fields United Methodist Church to officiate. Interment will take place Saturday, April 15, 2023 at 2 p.m. at the Mohnsville Cemetery, Mohnnton, Pennsylvania. Pastor Tamie Scalise of

ADVERTISEMENT

Calvary United Methodist Church, Mohton, Pennsylvania to officiate.

Memorial contributions may be forwarded to the charity of your choice.

www.buschcares.com